GENERAL SESSIONS COURT OF UNICOI COUNTY TENNESSEE

State of Tennessee vs.

Andrew Joesph Puckett

Case #

AFFIDAVIT OF COMPLAINT

, the affiant named below, after being sworn, state under oath that on or about Monday February 11th, 2019 in Unicoi County, Tennessee, Andrew Joesph Puckett committed the offense(s) of

Violation(s) of T.C.A. § Domestic Assault TCA 39-13-11 I further state under oath that the essential facts constituting the offense(s), the sources of my information and the reasons why this information is believable and reliable are as follows:

I was dispatched to Wal-Mart in Unicoi on report of a domestic assault that had occurred inside the store. While en-route I was advised by dispatch that the suspect involved was Andrew Puckett. I made contact outside the store with Mr. Puckett. He advised me that him and his mom was in a argument inside the store over his house and money. He stated he hit his mom in the head during the argument. I made contact with victim, Ms. Nancy Puckett. She stated that he was upset with her over money, and he hit her in the head multiple times. She stated it scared her because he has never hit her before. She had a small mark on right side of her head. Wal-Mart called law enforcement due to the assault. I spoke to cashier who was checking them out and he stated the same story as parties involved. I placed Mr. Puckett into custody and transported him to Unicoi County Jail without further incident. The victim was given a domestic violence packet and bond release notification.
